

What does open, project and no access mean?

There are 3 modes of access across the technical resources:

Open Access

You can walk in and access this during the opening hours inside of UAL Term Time. You may need a safety induction. If you are unsure, please ask a technician.

Project Access

You can request access on a per person, per project basis, and subject to approval by the technicians who manage that resource, you may be able to use it.

To request access to these resources, please complete this form: cci.to/request-access

No Access

You have no access to this technical resource.
